Bikers Charity Ride

The Perth Biker's Charity Ride is 43 years old in 2018 and is the longest running motorcycle charity event in Australia.

The first ride was in 1975 when around 40 members of Bikes Unlimited rode to Sister Kate's Orphanage with toys for the kids, who weren't there because they'd been sent to people's homes for Christmas. So in 1976 with a few more riders, Bikes Unlimited took their gifts to the Salvation Army. This tradition has carried on ever since and the event will have been providing much needed and appreciated donations to the Salvation Army for 40 years in 2016.

Every year on the first Saturday of December, thousands of motorcyclists now gather together in Belmont, some dressed up, others with their bikes dressed up and others again doing both, then set off to HBF Arena in Joondalup with all their gifts for the Salvos. The Salvos gladly receive the gifts that include monetary donations and load their truck full of non-perishable foods or quality blankets, clothes and toys. Over 40 years this event has provided over $2 million in donations. The event is still organised by Bikes Unlimited (Inc.) with help from volunteers who are friends and/or fellow motorcyclists. The donations are donated directly to the Salvos, so there are no part proceeds like most other charity events.
